Fox Communities Credit Union Announces Amanda Brown as Executive Director of the Fox Cares Foundation

APPLETON, Wis. (October 1, 2025) – Fox Communities Credit Union has named Amanda Brown as the next Executive Director of the Fox Cares Foundation.

Brown began her journey with Fox in 2002 as the Marketing Assistant and over the years she moved up to the Director of Marketing. Brown has played an important role in shaping both the credit union and the Foundation brand. She is a founding member of the Fox Cares Foundation and served as secretary since its inception in 2016, demonstrating her deep commitment to our community initiatives. She has also led the marketing campaign efforts for countless initiatives, new branches, and mergers. Under her leadership, the Foundation will continue to thrive, advancing a strong connection between our credit union, the Foundation, and the communities we serve.

“Stepping into the role of Executive Director for the Fox Cares Foundation is both an honor and a natural evolution of my journey with Fox. As one of the founding members, I’ve seen firsthand the impact we can make when we invest deeply in our communities. This transition allows me to blend my passion for purpose-driven work with my experience in marketing and operations — all to build stronger, more connected communities. I’m grateful for the support of our leadership, my teammates, and our dedicated Board, and I’m excited to lead the Foundation into its next chapter.” said Brown.
