FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Fox Communities Credit Union Announces Sue Weyers as AVP of Commercial Credit, Manager

APPLETON, Wis. (April 2026) – Weyers joined Fox Communities Credit Union in 2025 as Assistant Vice President of Commercial Credit. Since joining the organization, she has demonstrated strong leadership and financial expertise while supporting commercial lending decisions and maintaining high credit quality standards.

In her new role, Weyers oversees the Commercial Credit Analyst team, providing strategic guidance in the evaluation of commercial members' creditworthiness and overall financial condition. She is responsible for analyzing complex financial data to determine credit risk, supporting sound lending decisions, and ensuring the delivery of accurate, high-quality credit recommendations.

The Assistant Vice President of Commercial Credit, Manager position plays a critical role in Fox Communities Credit Union's commercial lending operations, requiring strong leadership, critical thinking, and a comprehensive understanding of commercial lending practices. Weyers' promotion reflects her proven performance and the organization's commitment to developing internal talent.

"I am so excited to take on the AVP Commercial Credit, Manager role and be part of this talented analyst group. As we continue to grow, I am committed to engaging & developing the underwriting team while ensuring delivery of solid credit risk analysis so Fox can continue to build stronger financial futures for our members." said Weyers.
