KerberRose Oshkosh Office Relocation

KerberRose is pleased to announce our Oshkosh office has relocated to a new location at 2905 Universal Street, Suite #200. The new location is a larger office and more easily accessible to our clients. This move was finalized on December 13, 2022, and will include all current team members alongside office leader Melanie Stellmacher, CPA and Shareholder, and Andrew Mathes, CPA and Shareholder. This new office provides KerberRose a fresh, inviting space to continue providing quality service to our clients.

KerberRose's Oshkosh office is home to 12 staff members, and we are hopeful the expansion will offer the additional space to continue growing our top-talent team. Our current team members offer a variety of advisory services, including tax and accounting, business and human resource consulting, wealth management and retirement plans, technology, and expert knowledge in a variety of industries.
