

Hawkins Ash CPAs adds location in Neenah, Wisconsin

Roberts, Ritschke & Tyczkowski, Ltd. joins Hawkins Ash CPAs

For Immediate Release

La Crosse, WI – Aug. 23, 2021

Hawkins Ash CPAs, a full-service regional certified public accounting and business advisory firm, announces that Roberts, Ritschke & Tyczkowski, Ltd. (RR&T) will be joining them. This allows Hawkins Ash CPAs to expand its presence in northeastern Wisconsin. The merger is effective September 1, 2021.

“This merger fits well into our growth, development and service strategy,” states Abraham Leis, CPA, Managing Partner of Hawkins Ash CPAs. “With the addition of RR&T in Neenah, Wisconsin, we now have ten offices in Wisconsin and Minnesota and are very excited to start serving more clients in the Fox Valley. The partners and entire RR&T staff bring a multitude of knowledge to Hawkins Ash, particularly in tax and accounting services. Their expertise in valuations and estate and fiduciary compliance complements ours, so clients can expect more service options and the same level of excellent service.”

RR&T partners include Russell Ritschke, CPA, MST, Jeffery Tyczkowski, CPA, Vicki Krueger, and Keith Depies, CPA. Along with 12 staff members, these partners will continue to serve their clients from the same Neenah office at 335 1st St. Those clients are now able to take advantage of Hawkins Ash CPAs comprehensive lineup of services, including auditing, R&D studies, state and local tax services. Clients will experience the same local, personalized services they have experienced while working with RR&T in its 44 year history.

“We couldn’t be happier to join Hawkins Ash,” says Keith Depies, CPA. “We’re especially excited for our clients and employees to reap the rewards of the support and stability of such a well-established, respected firm,” he says.

Since 1956, Hawkins Ash CPAs has been providing expertise in audit, accounting, tax, and consulting services to a wide variety of sectors, including individuals, privately held businesses, nonprofit organizations, governmental entities, credit unions and housing authorities. Hawkins Ash is now a $20 million firm that ranks in the top 200 in a field of over 44,000 accounting firms in the nation. With the addition of the Neenah accounting practice, it now has seven offices in Wisconsin, three offices in Minnesota, 20 partners, and over 160 professionals serving clients throughout Wisconsin, Minnesota and the entire United States.

About Hawkins Ash CPAs

Hawkins Ash CPAs, a Forbes-recommended and Inside Public Accounting 200 firm, provides certified public accounting services to privately held businesses, governmental organizations, nonprofit entities, housing authorities and credit unions. The firm currently has offices in Green Bay, La Crosse, Manitowoc, Marshfield, Medford and Mequon, Wisconsin, and Rochester, St. Charles and Winona, Minnesota. The firm was founded in 1956. To learn more about Hawkins Ash CPAs, visit www.hawkinsashcpas.com.

For further information, contact:

Abraham Leis, CPA
Managing Partner
Hawkins Ash CPAs
608.793.3131
aleis@hawkinsashcpas.com